CONDITIONS OF SALE.

I.—The highest bidder shall be the purchaser. If any dispute arise between the bidders the lot to be put up again at the bidding immediately preceding dispute, or the Auctioneer may declare the purchaser.

II.—The advance in the bidding to be in the ratio of not less than 5 per cent. The Auctioneer is to be the sole arbiter in any matter of dispute; he also reserves to himself the right to refuse any bidding, and the Vendor reserves the right to bid for any lot, either personally or by an agent.

III.—The Purchaser to pay a deposit of five shillings in the pound as part payment, such deposit to be a general deposit on the whole of the lots of such buyers. Every purchaser to give his name and place of abode.

IV.—The Auctioneers do not guarantee the authenticity, genuineness, or hold themselves responsible as to the correctness of any lot.

V.—Each and every lot shall at the fall of the hammer be considered as delivered, and no lot or lots can be removed until the whole amount of the Purchaser's account shall be paid in full.

VI.—The lots must be cleared away from the premises, with all faults, imperfections and errors of description, between the hours of 10 and 4 on Tuesday, Nov. 11th, 1919, and no allowance whatever shall be made for misdescription or errors of whatsoever nature. Any damage caused by removal or otherwise, must be made good by the person committing the same; principals being considered responsible for the acts of their servants.

VII.—NO LOTS CAN BE CLEARED DURING THE SALE and only during the hours provided for in Condition VI.

VIII.—Any lots uncleared by the appointed time, agreeably with the Conditions, will be forfeited, and may be re-sold or warehoused at the expense of the purchaser; any deficiency arising from re-sale together with warehouse charges and all attendant expenses, shall be made good by the Purchaser. The purchaser to pay the man 10/- a day over and above the time allowed for delivery.

IX.—The Auctioneer reserves the right of altering the arrangement of the lots, selling two or more lots as one lot, or in any other way he may think proper, also of withdrawing any lot or lots and of altering these conditions at the time of sale.

X.—No Cheques taken. No Lots to be transferred. No Money Lots accepted.

LASTLY.—On failure of complying with the above Conditions, or non-performance of all or any part of them, the defaulters will lose their deposit, and the Auctioneers or Clerk of Sale shall be at liberty to take such steps as may be deemed necessary to bring the transaction to a close; and if a re-sale be effected, either by public auction or private contract, all loss and expenses shall devolve on the defaulter at this sale.
